Objective

This is responsible law enforcement work in the protection of life and property, in addition to community caretaking through the enforcement of laws and ordinances.

Work involves responsibility for the protection of life and property, prevention of crime, apprehension of criminals, and the enforcement of laws and ordinances. An employee of this class may be assigned to uniformed patrol, crime prevention, investigations, school resource duty, traffic enforcement, or other specialized departmental activity. Work involves an element of personal danger in the pursuit of duties. Officers must exercise independent judgment in meeting both routine and complex emergency situations and act without direct supervision. A significant portion of time involves public contact where discretion and tact is to be conscientiously exercised. Assignments and instructions are received in general terms from a superior officer who reviews and evaluates work methods and results through reports, observations, and discussions.

Relationships

Reports to: Police Sergeant or Commander

Supervisory Responsibility: None.

Essential Functions

Patrols residential and commercial property to observe, prevent, or terminate unlawful acts; maintains radio contact with dispatch; reports crimes or unusual situations; responds to calls or initiates actions; backs up other units as required.

Responds to calls involving traffic accidents and other serious accidents; secures scene to protect victims and property; gives first aid and calls for medical assistance; interviews participants and witnesses; collects other related information and completes reports.

Facilitates the movement of people and vehicles, including enforcement of all traffic regulations; controls and redirects traffic in congested areas and scenes of emergency or danger; promotes traffic safety; assists stranded motorists; enforces parking restrictions; controls crowds; and prevents the blockage of sidewalks, streets, and other public accesses.

Operates a radar unit in monitoring speed of traffic; stops violators and issues warnings or citations; will conduct appropriate tests for determination of intoxication when dealing with a potentially impaired motorist.

Responds to a wide range of citizen needs and requests, at times under emergency conditions; e.g., accidents, rescue efforts, search for missing person(s), alarms, and in-progress criminal activity.

Responds to reports of criminal activity; searches buildings, residences, and surrounding areas for criminal subjects; secures scene to restore peace and protect evidence; calls for assistance as needed; provides backup to other officers engaged in confrontation or arrest activities.
Perform essential job functions in low- light or no-light environments.

Interviews complainants and witnesses; analyzes probable sequence of events; seeks additional data through research, telephone calls, interviews and other methods; identifies, arrests, fingerprints, and takes into custody offender(s) for probable cause; advises such persons of their constitutional rights; searches for weapons or contraband; interrogates regarding act(s) committed; transports for incarceration; testifies in court proceedings to provide known facts and evidence.

Serves as community policing officer; patrols neighborhoods on foot or in a vehicle; develops contacts with residents and business owners.

Has the role of a first responder and mandated reporter.

Provides assistance in obtaining social services and helps those who are in mental health crisis.

May fill in for Community Service Officers (road obstructions, animal control etc.)

On an assigned basis, serves as a field-training officer; patrols with recruits and instructs officers on police procedures; evaluates officers during probationary period. May be assigned as an in-house instructor for various disciplines (range officer, batons, etc.).

May be assigned as the Officer in Charge (O.I.C) for the shift in the absence of a Sergeant.

Periodically practices the use of a variety of firearms and attends continuing education seminars and lectures on various law enforcement practices and techniques.

Provides effective and efficient customer services and promotes and maintains responsive community relations.

Follows safe work practices.

Able to operate police vehicles safely to include the loading / unloading and towing of a trailer.

May be assigned to other areas such as School Resource, Community Relations officer or Training Officer, Investigations Unit, K-9 unit, or any other assignment deemed necessary by the Chief of Police based on the operational needs of the department or City. Job functions for these duties are described in additional documents.

Performs related duties as assigned.

Qualifications

Education and Experience

Graduation from high school (or GED), supplemented by the state-approved course of law enforcement training; bachelor's degree preferred; or any equivalent combination of training and experience that provides the following knowledge, abilities, and skills:

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

Knowledge of applicable federal, state, and local civil and criminal statutes and ordinances on which charges and arrests are executed, including laws of arrest, search, and seizure.

Knowledge of police rules and regulations and standard operating procedures.

Knowledge of street layout and the geography of the City and location of important buildings.

Knowledge of Community Policing principles.

Ability to handle sensitive public contacts and to deal tactfully and courteously, but firmly with the public.

Ability to distinguish confidential material and apply departmental standards for security and privacy.
